

The screenshot shows a web form for John Deere. At the top left is the John Deere logo. Below it is a progress bar with four steps: 1, 2, 3, and 4. Step 2, 'Organization', is highlighted in green. The main heading is 'Tell Us About Your Organization'. Below this is a paragraph explaining the purpose of an organization. Then is a text input field for 'Organization Name' containing 'Peter Bartsch'. Below that are two toggle switches. The first is checked and labeled 'This organization is for personal use.' with an information icon. The second is unchecked and labeled 'This organization has a different address than my user account.' At the bottom is a link to 'logout' of 'bartschfamilyfarms' and a yellow 'Next' button.

JOHN DEERE

1 — 2 Organization — 3 — 4

Tell Us About Your Organization

Think of your organization as a team that includes your equipment, staff, and partners. Having an organization gives you easy access to all your equipment, people, data and much more.

Organization Name

Peter Bartsch

☒ This organization is for personal use. ⓘ

☐ This organization has a different address than my user account.

Already have an organization? Click here to logout of bartschfamilyfarms and use your other user account.

Next

CONSTRAINTS

Description of the above in a concise and clear statement. A statement that can be part of a story told across a few pages in the portfolio – a rarely, if ever, making it to the third line.