

CONTEXT

Ideally the cabin lights are on and passengers are upright and active. Seat-back trays allow for laptops to be opened, but light from the windows can make it hard to view low contrast content.